Abstract of JP2002113150

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To provide a slot machine, with which a directed indication concerning play can be enjoyed without damaging the original playability of a slot machine. SOLUTION: Between variable display means (reels 5a-5c) and a directed image display means (liquid crystal display device 13), which is arranged at a prescribed angle to the variable display means (reels 5a-5c), for displaying a directed image, a half mirror 14 is disposed at a prescribed inclination angle. The directed image displayed on the directed image display means (liquid crystal display device 13) is displayed while being overlapped on picture patterns displayed on the variable display means (reels 5a-5c) by the half mirror 14.
